

LOCAL & GENERAL NEWS.

Sequah to-night.

Various changes and improvements are projected in connection with the Hawaiian hotel.

The office of the Labor Commission will hereafter be located in the upper floor of the Judiciary building.

Two thousand people interested themselves in the BULLETIN's affairs yesterday. The whole town is occupied in the same business today.

We call our readers' attention to the fact that to-day's issue is head and shoulder above any other number of the BULLETIN for many weeks past.

Sequah has made an arrangement with the Hawaiian band, by which music will be furnished by that corps at his usual evening lectures.

Associate Editor Norrie of the Independent is receiving the congratulations of his numerous friends over the advent of a son and heir this morning.

Mechanics' Home, corner Hotel and Nuuanu streets, lodging by day, week or month. Terms: 25 and 50 cents per night; $1 and $1.25 per week.

Lawn tennis seems to be all the rage at present, judging from the crowds which gather about the tennis grounds on Union Square every afternoon.

United Carriage Co.'s stand, besides having superior hacks always ready at the call of "290," furnishes fine livery outfits at the shortest notice—good horses and nice carriages, from buggy to wagonette.

G. R. Harrison, practical piano and organ maker and tuner, can furnish best factory references. Orders left at Hawaiian News Co. will receive prompt attention. All work guaranteed to be the same as done in factory.

If you want your watch repaired. If you want jewelry made up neatly. If you want souvenir spoons, or anything in the jewelry line. H. G. Biart, at C. Gertz's store, Fort street, is your man. He was for ten years the practical watchmaker for Wenner & Co.

While the EVENING BULLETIN is fortunate in securing as central an office as that next to C. E. Williams & Son's on King street, it is unfortunate in the fact that a huge pile of bricks and mortar is lying in front of it. This will be remedied in a few days, it is hoped.

If you want to buy a really good clock or watch at Coast prices inspect the stock of Brown & Kubey, at No. 4, Masonic Temple; there you will find the largest variety in Honolulu at the lowest prices; clocks and watches sold on weekly and monthly payments. Brown & Kubey make a specialty of rubber stamps.

Ah Fook, a Chinaman recently released from Oahu jail, where he had been confined for having opium in possession, died at Palama yesterday afternoon. It is thought that his system had been so weakened while in jail through his being forbidden the use of his favorite drug that his death was accelerated in consequence. He was one of the most pronounced fiends in the Chinese colony.

THE POLICE COURT.

The Results of a Morning Session With Judge Wilcox.

The first case that occupied the attention of Judge Wilcox this morning was that of the Republic of Hawaii against a long list of Chinese, for violation Section 5, of Act 21, laws of the Provisional Government of Hawaii, or in playing a little che fa. Six of the numerous defendant pleaded guilty and were promptly fined $10 each and costs. The other defendants, who appeared to be smart people, denied the soft impeachment against them and defied the prosecution to make out a case against them. In other words they pleaded not guilty, and the prosecuting official entered a nolle prosequi in their behalf as quick as the Court could get it into writing.

Henry Carsten is a poor unfortunate individual who has got himself into the toils of the law by, as set forth on the records of the District Court of Honolulu of even date herewith, violating subdivision 4 of section 15, chapter 16 of the Penal Code. This is, of course, an ordinary matter for a BULLETIN reporter to be acquainted with, but the general public will be somewhat surprised to learn that the defendant was simply charged with feloniously stealing and carrying three pounds of sugar of the value of fifteen cents, the same being the property of the Onomea Sugar Co. The poor defendant, being caught in the act, could not do otherwise than plead guilty. He did so and got ten days at hard labor and $1 fine in consequence.

Duane's case was continued until to-morrow.

Ben. Kalana, whoever he may be, pleaded guilty of the crime of being drunk in Honolulu on the 15th of May. The record does not state how many other men in Honolulu were drunk on the same day or where they got their particular "jags," which may account for the fact that in Ben Kalana's case sentence has been suspended.

Poor F. McCandless was foolish enough to plead guilty to the same offense and got a $2 fine and $1 costs charged up against him in very short order.

What See Tim knows about carrying off a certain quilt, and a cotton one at that, which was sworn to by the complaint, Ah Sin, to be of the value of $2.50, cash down will occupy the attention of the Court to-morrow morning.

Various other cases occupied the time of the Court during the session, but when the BULLETIN reporter left there was nothing in sight but a sack of sugar. This being of the third or fourth grade he had no use for it.

CIRCUIT COURT.

Many Probate Matters to Come Up To-morrow.

Judge Whiting will have his hands full to-morrow if he attends to all the business that the clerks and attorneys have arranged for him.

In the first place he will have to determine whether M. Morriseau, nee Trousseau, or S. Caillot are entitled to administer on certain estates connected with that of the late Dr. Trousseau.

In the estate of the late James G. Hayselden the account of J. S. Walker, the former trustee has been filed by H. E. McIntyre who also petitions the court for approval of same and release of his testate's bond.

In the matter of the estate of the James Gay minors, a petition has been filed for the appointment of a trustee and guardian in place of the widow, who recently met with an accident which resulted in her death.

Judge Cooper and a native jury have been occupied during the day in trying the case of the Republic of Hawaii vs. Kaniku, accused of an assault with a deadly weapon. This is the second trial of the same case, the former conviction having been set aside and a new trial ordered by the Supreme Court.
